Now Comes Duane Morley Cox, Pro Se, after review and reflection on the Memorandum and Order of 29 August 2019, specifically the following statement:

“This court’s general practice is to adhere to the traditional litigation sequence of complaint; answer or motion to dismiss; discovery, if appropriate; and only then, summary judgement.” Order, pg 4 [Emphasis Added]

It apparent that my Answer In Intervention is and should be considered a “Motion To Dismiss In Intervention” because that is exactly the relief the Answer In Intervention seeks when it is stated:

“... this court must find that President Trump has absolute immunity, that the related Subpoenas must be quashed, and the case must be dismissed with prejudice for lack of Jurisdiction pursuant to Nixon v. Fitzgerald.”
Answer In Intervention, Pg 18
